

WOMEN LEADING CHANGE

Developing & Empowering Women in
Leadership within International Schools

19 & 20 JANUARY 2018
10th Annual 21st Century Learning
Conference in Hong Kong

21clhk.org/wlead/

Female leadership continues to lag behind male leadership in international schools. Our goal is to balance this inequality in leadership and create new opportunities for educators and aspiring females within our schools as we move into the future.

WLead is a strand incorporated into the 21st Century Learning Conference that provides a platform for those interested in empowering current and future generations of women around the world.

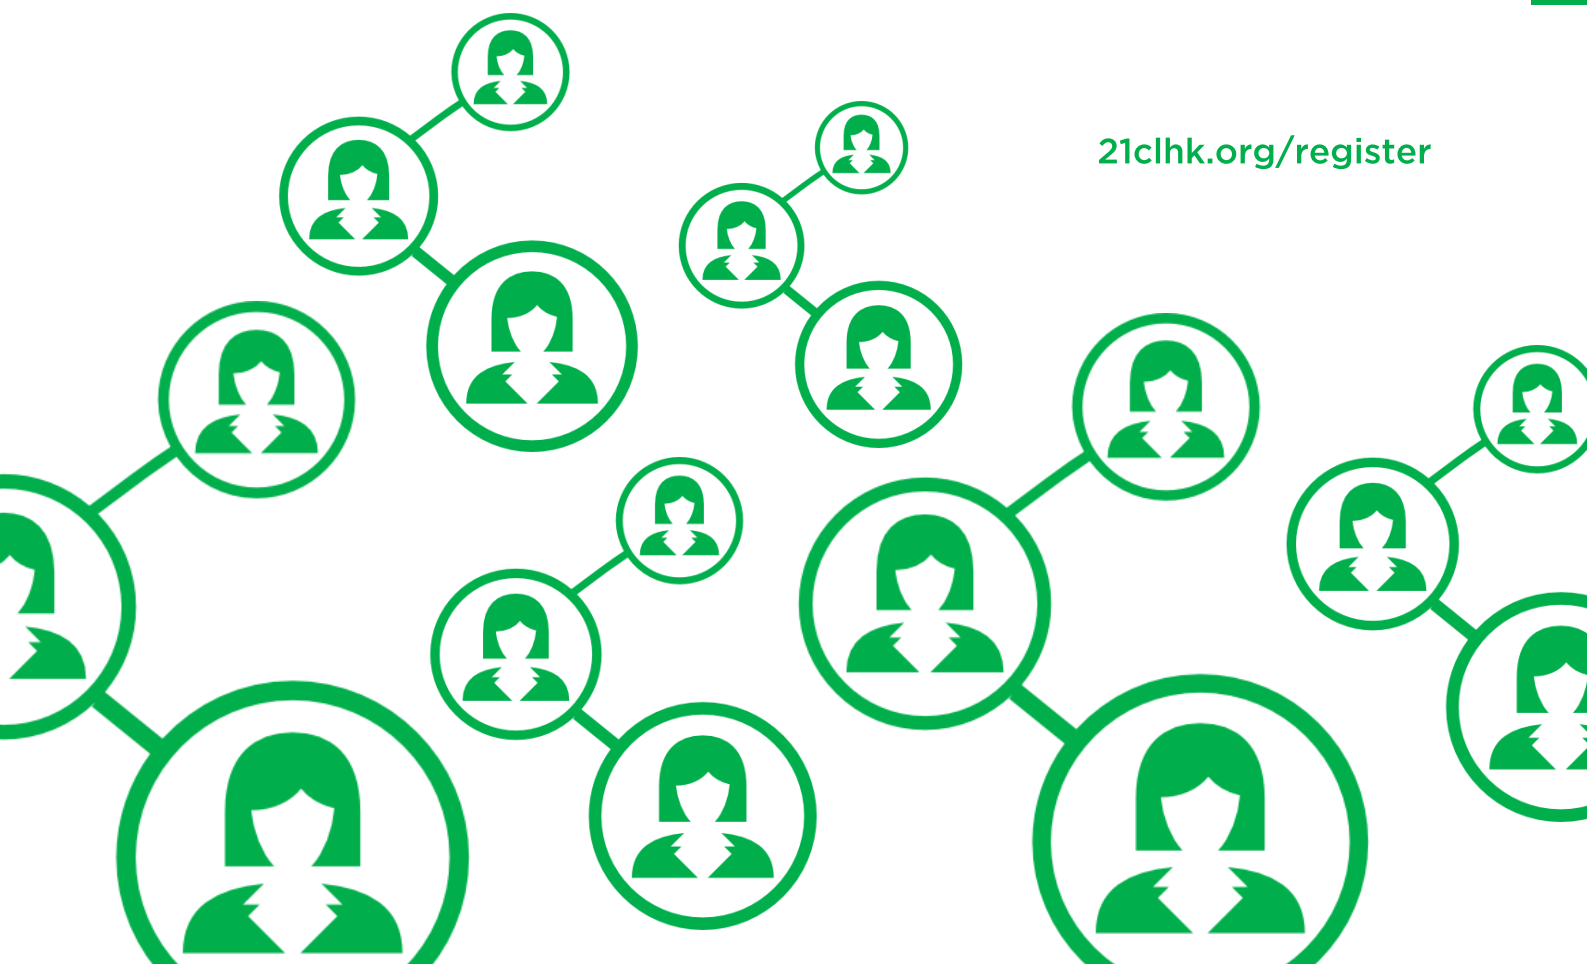

NETWORKING

#WLead Meet Up:

Jan 19th Coffee Morning – 7:30

Register early and join us just before the conference starts to network over coffee.

Innovation & Technology

Dana Watts

HKIS, Curriculum Leader

Women's role in international schools in Asia pose unique challenges.

External pressures, self-imposed barriers, and cultural factors are just a few of the hurdles women face when serving in leadership positions.

It's Time to Create an "Old Girls Network" for our Students

Dana Watts

HKIS, Curriculum Leader

This will be both a discussion and presentation of how we can develop networks and strategies for our female students to connect and find opportunities in leadership within the international schools. We have all heard the age old saying of the "Old Boys Club".
